ATTACHMENT – A
(AFFIDAVIT)

On June 6, 2018, at approximately 9:55am, Fort Brown Border Patrol Agents were conducting patrol operations near Alaska Road and Oklahoma Road in Brownsville, Texas, an area known for narcotic smuggling. Agents observed a white in color pick-up truck on a trailer floating across from Mexico near the US side of the river bank. The truck was off loaded onto the US river bank and travelled northbound away from the river at a high rate speed toward the area known as "Alaska Gap." Agents responded to the area and followed the vehicle. The vehicle stopped at the intersection of Alaska Road and Browne Road, when agents observed two subjects flee from the vehicle and run behind a residence. The driver, wearing black pants and black shirt attempted to hide under a black tarp. Agents apprehended the driver who was identified as Jorge Angel RODRIGUEZ. The passenger, a fourteen year old United States Citizen, was also apprehended. Agents recovered fourteen (14) bundles from the bed of the truck which field tested positive for marijuana. The fourteen (14) bundles of marijuana weighed approximately 155.55 kgs.

Post advisement of rights by DEA Agents and Border Patrol Agents, RODRIGUEZ made statements to investigators to substantiate that he knowingly and intentionally possessed with intent to distribute marijuana from Mexico to unknown persons in the United States.
